

California (Lockyer) Semi-auto Confiscation Documents

In the late 1990s, California Attorney General Bill Lockyer "reinterpreted" a statewide ban on the sale of certain semi-automatic firearms. In so doing, he ordered that citizens who had duly registered their grandfathered weapons now had to relinquish them. Here are three scanned images of official documents from June of 1999 pertaining to the debacle:

Lockyer1.gif  Lockyer2.gif  Lockyer3.gif

Registration Always Leads To Confiscation!

Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF