

LifeLock
Guarantee Your Good Name

World-renowned academic, gun expert and blogger, Dr. John Loft, worked his entire life to establish his reputable name and credibility, and in one swoop identity thieves compromised it all. Author of numerous books including the groundbreaking More Guns, Less Crime, Dr. Loft became the target of online identity thieves who assumed his identity in an effort to discredit him and tarnish his good name and reputation.

Dr. Loft, former senior researcher at the Yale University School of Law, former chief economist at the United States Sentencing Commission and a Gun Owners of America member, did his diligent research and turned to LifeLock, the world's recognized identity theft protection leader, to protect and restore his good name. We're offering the same protection that gives Dr. Loft peace of mind to all Gun Owners of America members—a discount.
