

Gun Owner Saves Cop's Life by Shooting Deranged Gunman!

(Guns.com by dabneybailey) It's not every day that you hear the police give a civilian a warm "thank you" for entering a lethal shootout, but that's exactly what happened in Early, Texas on Sunday. But before we get into the heroic civilian shooter, let's back up a bit.

See a Man About a Dog

It all began, innocently enough, "as a squabble over dogs." David Michael House, 58, and Iris Valentina Calaci, 53, were both residents at the Peach House RV Park in central Texas. They were also dog owners, and their pooches allegedly had a nasty habit of relieving themselves on the lawn of neighbor Charles Ronald Conner, 58.
